SARRA MOSSOFF

Write to: BARBIE Comics, 387 Park Avenue South, New York, NY 10016

Hey, kids — Since we print your name, age, city and state, please include them on your letters.

Dear BARBIE,

I have some of your comics. They are great to read and interesting! I like reading them when I don't have anything to do. I live in the country, and sometimes I don't have anything to do.
Goodbye!

Jacklyn Smirak, age 9 1/2
Hailtsville, TX

We're happy to hear that BARBIE comics can make your days more fun and interesting, Jacklyn! But we bet there's lots to do in the country! Many city readers would probably tell you that there's not much to do in the city — it's all in how you look at it! It's very easy to become so comfortable with a place that you forget all the fun things there are to do.

Every place has its own special qualities, just like every person! You just have to look carefully to see what makes you and your environment unique!

Dear BARBIE,

I just finished reading the February issue of BARBIE, and I was very disappointed to read a letter addressed to the "people who make Barbie." I was disappointed because the girl who wrote the letter wrote to Barbie like she was a real, living woman. Barbie isn't meant to be realistic! She is an imaginary person that helps girls set and fulfill goals.

I've been playing with Barbie since I was 3 years old, and I've collected over 55 Barbie dolls. I have accomplished many things thanks to Barbie. One of the messages of Barbie is "We girls can do anything." I took that message to heart and have accomplished many things, including doing well in school, becoming a very fine dancer, and even beginning an acting career!

Barbie is a fine role model for people of all ages.

Tara Graham, age 11
Anaheim, CA

We couldn't agree with you more, Tara! Barbie is truly a role model that everyone can admire.

We are inspired by fictional characters, such as Barbie, by historical people, such as the Suffragettes who fought for a woman's right to vote, and by contemporary heroes, such as Sally Ride, the first female astronaut! We're sure you can think of many more who set wonderful examples and inspire us all to do our best.

We know Barbie is a doll, but if you want to imagine her as a real person, go ahead!

Either way she is a wonderful role model who inspires all of us to be our best!

Dear Hildy, Lisa, and Sarra,

Hi! I'm 12 years old and I love reading about and playing with Barbie. I don't care what other kids say, because Barbie is really fun! All the characters in your comic are really great. I like Courtney and Todd the best! I love the stories you make up!

Keep up the good — no, excellent work!

Zoe McIntosh, age 12
Australia

Thanks, Zoe! Our job is easy when we have wonderful readers like you! Thanks for writing!

Dear BARBIE,

I really like your comics. I especially liked the BARBIE #44 issue. I think Africa is an interesting country. I thought Africa was just a place full of wildlife, until I read that issue.

When I read it, I realized that Africa probably wasn't much different from the United States. I hope you do future issues about Barbie in Africa and other interesting places.

Caitlin McGarry, age 8 1/2
Las Vegas, NV

You've made our day, Caitlin! It's great to hear that BARBIE is fun and entertaining, and you can even learn something from Barbie's wonderful adventures! We hope you enjoyed Barbie's trip to Venice, Italy in BARBIE #55 and her visit to Nashville, Tennessee in this very issue! We promise there'll be many more exciting and interesting adventures in the future!

Dear BARBIE,

My name is Pamela and I am 10 1/2 years old. I love your comics. Issue #41 was about cowboys and being deaf. I was very happy to see a story about deaf people, because I am deaf. Where did you get this idea? I've showed my whole class BARBIE #41, to show them there is deaf language in it!

I really love you! Bye!

Pamela Macias, age 10 1/2
Reseda, CA

We're so happy to hear from you, Pamela! It is wonderful to know that BARBIE stories touch our fans in so many special ways! There are lots of deaf people doing everything and anything that they choose to — as we're sure you know, Pamela! And now many others know, too! Remember, as Barbie always says, "You can do anything!"

Dear BARBIE,

If your comics were not good, I would not have caught my dad reading them!

Autumn Hall, age 9
Hisdale, NY

Thanks, Autumn! We must be doing something right! (Hope your Dad keeps reading!)

Dear BARBIE,

I really enjoyed reading your comic. It's so good that I read it all in one day. I like the part when you talked about species, plants, and insects.

Jennifer LaTorre
Philadelphia, PA

We're so happy to hear from a true-blue fan like you, Jennifer! Thanks for writing to us!
